Definite Action Expected at Open Meeting Here
Saturday Night.

Definite action regarding the utilization of the $175,000.00 appropriation for the new proposed Fox river dam is expected to be decided upon at a special open meeting of the Chain of Lakes association of Lake county in the Antioch high school building Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Unless some definite plan for the expenditure of the appropriation is decided upon before July 1 the money reverts back to the state, and any chance for a dam or other improvement in the chain of lakes region will be lost, for the present at least, or until some future general assembly can be prevailed upon to make another appropriation for this purpose.

State Senator Ray Paddock and Representatives Lee McDonough, Richard Lyons, and N. L. Jackson have assured the Lake county association of their support and will be present at the meeting.

C. K. Anderson is president of the organization, C. M. Maypole is vice-president, R. C. Abt, secretary, and E. H. White, treasurer.

Ancient Utica

The ancient city of Utica occupied a location in Africa on the north-western extremity of the Gulf of Tunis, 20 miles from Tunis. It was one of the oldest Phoenician settlements—according to tradition, about 1100 B. C. Utica played an important part in the Punic wars and submitted to Rome in the third war. It was destroyed by Arabs about the Seventh century. Excavations among its ruins revealed an amphitheater seating 20,000 people.

Standard Rail

The standard rail is 33 feet long. The number of cross-ties per mile differs with the various railroads and with conditions. The average number is 3,168.

By the Governor of Illinois A Proclamation

In two decades the demands of increased population and the requirements of the higher standards of living have changed the consideration of forest and bird life conservation from a fad for a few to a necessary public program.

Flood control and farm relief are in no small way dependent upon the participation of the general public in measures and policies designed to retain the natural resources which we now enjoy and to recreate some of the resources which we have destroyed.

Scientific knowledge relating to the service of birds and trees is now becoming common property. Children are now aware of the service performed by the leaves above the ground and the roots below the ground in time of heavy rains, and of the war fought ceaselessly by the birds against crop destroying scourges.

In order that educational facilities may direct our thoughts and activities to the useful as well as the beautiful service of nature at times most desirable for the consideration thereof, laws have been enacted in this State to set aside certain days of each year for the observance of Arbor and Bird Day.

Now, Therefore, I, LOUIS L. EMMERSON, Governor of Illinois, in obedience to those enactments, do hereby designate Friday, April 12 and Friday, October 18, of the present year as and I request the citizens of Illinois to devote these days to the planning and planting of trees and shrubbery along their highways, about their abodes, around the public buildings and along the city streets within this state, and to the providing for the lives and comfort of our native birds.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Illinois to be affixed.

DONE AT THE CAPITOL IN THE CITY OF SPRINGFIELD THIS EIGHTEENTH DAY OF FEBRUARY IN THE YEAR OF OUR LORD ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY-NINE AND OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS THE ONE HUNDRED AND ELEVEN.

LOUIS L. EMMERSON.

WILLIAM J. STRATTON
Secretary of State.

MC DOWELL TO FIGHT GARLOW IN WINDUP AT PALACE FRIDAY

Mitchell Men Win Four Of Seven Contests Last Week.

Headliners at the Antioch Palace this week will be Red McDowell, Angelo Garlow, Meier Frager, and Frankie Hughes.

McDowell and Garlow are in the 153 pound class and will clash in the last bout Friday night. McDowell, who comes from Waukegan, and Garlow, who lives in Kenosha, are two of the best fighters who step into the Palace ring. Frager and Hughes are scheduled for combat in the 135 pound class.

Other bouts listed are: Joe Drinka, North Chicago, vs. Ray Krug, Burlington, 147 pounds; John Taylor, Waukegan, vs. Eddie Garlow, Kenosha, 133 pounds; Red Schneider, Waukegan, vs. Hugo Sullivan, Kenosha, 124 pounds; Buddy O'Day, Milwaukee, vs. Buddy Beyer, Twin Lakes, 163 pounds; and Leo Leggett, Chicago, vs. Alphonse Amalzone, Racine, 124 pounds.

Mitchell Men Win
When Milwaukee men from Pinkie Mitchell's gym came to the Palace last week they were winners in four of the seven contests. Red McDowell, Oscar O'Hannon, and Frankie Hughes—all the Palace regulars when it comes to winning—were too much for the Mitchell men.

Red McDowell and Frank Loomis staged the windup battle. McDowell more than held his own in the first two periods, but in the last of the two periods, Loomis, too, third was allpunching. Loomis, too, seemed to gain strength in the last round. McDowell handled Loomis several strong punches on the button—one of the punches taking effect. McDowell had a nasty smash over one eye as a result of the fighters' bumping heads, but the gash didn't interfere with his fighting.

O'Day Is Clever
Clever boxing was exhibited by Pat O'Day of the Mitchell stables. His opponent was Joe Stowe, Kenosha. O'Day played the ropes to good advantage, and although Stowe usually knows some pretty good tricks, he didn't get to try any of them.

Oscar O'Hannon, the young Waukegan fighter, won over Mitchell's Bobbie Gullano—but it wasn't an easy match to win. In the third round Gullano opened fire and showed what his right hand is made of and what he can do with it—but he was too late. O'Hannon had won the first rounds by too big a margin. Had the Mitchell man started his hard hitting in the second period, the hard hitting would have been his. O'Hannon was feisty, however, and deserves a great deal of credit for his victory.

Frankie Hughes Wins
In the only four-round fight of the evening, Frankie Hughes was victor

Nature Study Trip Is Subject of Paper Written By Student

(Following is a theme written by Dean Williams, fifth grade pupil, following a bird hike taken this week. Miss Ilus Royal is the fifth grade teacher.—Editor's Note.)

"Our Bird Hunt"
By Dean Williams

Yesterday our teacher, Miss Royal, told us that we were going on a bird hunt. The next morning at about 6:30 o'clock we were starting on our way. We went to Tiffany's woods where we saw many birds. Some of them were: robins, meadow larks, crows, blackbirds, red-winged blackbirds, red-headed woodpeckers, blue jays, flickers, wrens, English sparrows, swallows and an oriole, brown thrush and some wild ducks.

The bird that I noticed the most was the red-headed woodpecker because of its red topknot, and the sound it made when pecking on the hollow trees and posts.

Wild ducks look very funny when they are flying high up in the air. Their necks are long and thin, and their heads are about half an inch thick. When they are flying their tails spread out and their legs are trailing along side of the tail.

As it was nearing time for school we hurried down a gravel road until we came to a short cut toward school. Many of us got our feet wet, but we didn't mind it because we had such a good time.

CHURCH TO GIVE DANCE TO RAISE BUILDING FUNDS

Proceeds from the supper and dance to be given by St. Peter's Catholic church in the Antioch Palace Monday night will be used for the new church building.

Supper will be served from 6 o'clock until everyone is served. Dancing to the music of White's orchestra will be under park plan.

ious over Fred Weibel, Mitchell man. Hughes didn't do much more than play around for three periods, but after the judges gave a draw decision, he directed all his might and main toward defeating Weibel. And he did.

Willard Munsell, Milwaukee, won over Sammy Valos, Waukegan. The fight wasn't an exceptionally good one, and both men were giving out when the final gong was tapped. Ernest Evans, Milwaukee, didn't have any trouble at all in getting the judge's decision over Ray Krug. Both fighters were off color.

CHILD IS SCALDED BY BOILING STARCH

Mother Spills Hot Liquid
Accidentally On Daughter

Painfully scalded when a pan of boiling starch was spilled on her chin, arms, and body, Frances Sherwood, small daughter of Mrs. Beatrice Sherwood, Lake Villa, is now recovering at her home.

The child came up back of her mother as the latter was taking the starch from the stove Monday morning. Mrs. Sherwood had thought her daughter was in another room. After the wounds had been dressed by Dr. H. F. Beebe, Antioch, the child was taken to a hospital for further treatment, and later removed to her home.

Spring Heat Records Broken; But Doffed Undies Are Donned

Topcoats, fur coats, red flannels, and other articles common to the winter months were cast aside last week—and doffed again Monday.

Thermometers showed a decided drop Sunday night following a heavy, driving rain. Persons who could feel and see spring everywhere ceased talking about feeling spring and were content to see the evidence of warmer weather in the budding trees and bushes.

Climaxing three days of sweltering weather, all heat records for this time of year were shattered Saturday afternoon when thermometers registered 84 degrees.

A 55-year old weather record for the vicinity of Chicago was broken. The previous early spring record was established April 5, 1873, when the temperature was 83 degrees. And only once in the history of the weather bureau did an April temperature go higher. This was on April 19, 1915, when 85 was reached.

Saturday was the hottest April 6, since 1882, when the mercury soared to 76, shattering a forty-seven-year-old record.

Utilization Of Straw For Insulation Board Is Proved Practical

Utilization of wheat straw for insulation board is now a practical process and this year one factory at St. Joseph, Missouri, has purchased 30,000 tons of straw which is being manufactured into insulation board at the rate of 125,000 square feet daily, according to Prof. O. R. Sweeney, Iowa State college.

It has been found that wheat straw after steel fingers in a shredder have separated it, produces long tough fibres which can be fabricated into a board that has great structural strength and will provide insulation in building, that saves 25 to 40 per cent in fuel for used heating.

Practical application of insulation is recognized by engineers everywhere and farmers, too, are learning that insulation of poultry houses, hog houses and other buildings brings direct returns in savings of feed and fuel.

Dub Spider Pladner Champ

The International Boxing union ruling body of the sport in Europe sent a cablegram to the New York State Athletic commission stating that it had named Spider Pladner the world's flyweight champion on the strength of the French boy's victory over Frankie Genaro of New York.

Pladner had previously knocked out Johnny Hill, English champion, and had outpointed Izzy Schwartz, recognized as the champion in New York state.

Five building permits have been issued by Building Commissioner Richard Corrin.

SCHOOL ELECTIONS CLAIM ATTENTION OF VOTERS SATURDAY

April, month of many elections, again claims the attention of voters here Saturday afternoon when three school ballots are on the election calendar.

A president and two members of the grade school board are to be chosen at the election to be held at the grade school building, and the polls will be open from 12 noon until seven p. m. Names on the ballot are: S. E. Pollock for president, and Roy Murrell and Fred Hawkins for directors. All three are up for re-election. The grade school board of directors consists of seven members, including the president. Two board members are elected each year for a three year term, and a president is elected every year for a term of one year.

While the grade school election is in progress a similar election will be in progress at the Antioch Township high school. The only candidate whose name will appear on the high school ballot is that of Clarence Crowley, candidate for member of the board of education to succeed F. B. Kennedy, who has declined another term after having served for six years.

The high school board of education has five members two of whom are elected each year except every third year when only one is to be selected. The president of the body is chosen at the organization meeting held following the election.

Trustee Election

In another room at the high school, from two to four o'clock, another balloting will be held for the purpose of electing a trustee for township 46, range 10 east. School townships have three trustees, and one is elected each year for a term of three years. It is the duty of the trustees to appoint a treasurer as custodian of the township's school funds. The treasurer at present is George Bartlett, and the three trustees are Henry Grimm, Richard Kaye and Harold Minto. Mr. Grimm's term expires and he is candidate for re-election. No printed ballots have been used at these elections for many years, but this year voters will find a convenient ballot for their use.

CHICAGO FALLS IN LINE WITH REGION'S BIG PUBLICITY PLAN

City Concerns to Spend
$75,000 to Advertise
"Chain O' Lakes"

Business Club Hears Progress of Work at Monthly Dinner.

OFFICERS ELECTION POSTPONED

Reports of a $75,000 publicity program to be inaugurated during this spring and early summer by the Outing and Recreation bureau of Chicago to exploit the Chain of Lakes, was told by Secretary A. M. Krali to business men assembled at the Antlers hotel Monday evening at the monthly meeting and dinner.

The big advertising idea conceived by the publicity committees of the Fox Lake Chamber of Commerce in cooperation with a committee representing the Antioch Business club, has been eagerly adopted by the big utilities companies of Chicago, including the North Shore railroad, the Public Service company, and a dozen others who operate the Outing and Recreation bureau, with the result that the entire advertising program of the bureau has been revised to fall in line with the idea of the local committees.

Bureau Grabs Big Idea.
Quick to grasp the mass appeal idea in their advertising program, the Outing and Recreation bureau, under the direction of C. Edward Thorne, is changing all the printing to be used in the publicity to read "Chain of Lakes," and the cost of making the change will exceed $75,000, according to Mr. Thorne who made the statement to Secretary A. M. Krali in Chicago yesterday.

The Bureau and all other Chicago concerns that have any interest in the chain of lakes country have pledged fifty-fifty co-operation in putting over the region's greatest advertising program, including the distribution of printed matter in the city.

Experts Assist.
Art work and pictures for folders are now being made in Chicago, and next week the local committees will have the services of an expert publicity man and copy writer to assist with the advertising. Committees are now busy raising funds to meet the expenses of the booths at the Outdoor show at the Coliseum May 6 to 11, and to pay for the thousands of folders to be distributed there.

Read Matter Discussed.
After some discussion, President C. L. Kull appointed a committee to investigate what action the state highway department contemplates regarding the Lake Villa unpaved section of Route 21, where an overhead crossing is to be built over the Soo line tracks.

A committee was also appointed to investigate the possibility of establishing an air port and an auto race course near Antioch.

The Secretary's report for the year was read, and the report showed that all bills for the fall festival had been paid.

Election Postponed.
Due to the small attendance at the meeting Monday night, motion was carried to postpone the election of officers for the ensuing year, and the club adjourned to meet upon call by the president.

Eating Peachy
Treats

HOW CAN you have a peach of a time better than with peaches? Zoological or botanical? Both. We presume that, being a zoological product yourself, you know just how to deal with that species, so we're going to limit our suggestions strictly to how to deal with the kind that grows on trees. So here goes for a couple of recipes that may not be in your repertoire:

Peach Marbles: Soften two tablespoons gelatin in one-fourth cup cold water, then dissolve it in one-half cup boiling water. Add three tablespoons boiling water. Add three tablespoons sugar and two tablespoons lemon juice, stir in the well-mashed contents of a No. 2½ can of peaches, and cool. As it begins to stiffen, beat occasionally with a Dover egg beater until light and fluffy. Add two stiffly beaten egg whites and let harden. When stiff and ready to serve, scoop out in little balls with a potato ball cutter or scoop out in small spoonfuls. Roll each one in shredded cocoanut, and pile several on each individual plate. Garnish with whipped cream forced through a pastry tube. Serves eight.

A Snappy Dessert

Peach Whirl: Drain juice from a No. 2½ can of peaches and measure. Add enough water to make two cups. Add three tablespoons sugar and one-half cup minute tapioca and cook in double boiler until the tapioca is transparent and clear. Add the sliced peaches and cook a few minutes more. Cool slightly, add one-fourth teaspoon vanilla, and fold in two stiffly beaten egg whites. Serve very cold with creamy soft custard or with plain cream. Serves six.

Oyster Toast

1 egg
1 cupful milk
4 teaspoons flour

New Idea for Summer

A charming ensemble which is destined to be popular this summer. The coat, with capelet and skirt, is of crepe de chine, while the silk blouse features the new glugham pattern.

36 oysters
1½ teaspoons salt
2 teaspoons finely minced parsley
Beat the egg slightly and add the milk gradually, while stirring constantly. Dip the slices of bread in this mixture and saute to a golden brown in a frying pan. Drain the oysters from their liquor and place in a saucepan with the butter. When thoroughly heated through, add the flour gradually while stirring. Last, add the cream, a little at a time and stir until smooth and well blended. Add the salt, pepper, and minced parsley. Then pour over the toast while hot.

ALL ABOUT WHAT THE LITTLE CHILDREN ARE DOING IN ANIMAL WORLD

BY V. LUDEL BODEN

"I know what let's do!" Johnny Ape said to the Rabbit and Squirrel boys.

"What?" all of the others asked. "I think it would be fun for us to have secretly hidden mail boxes and send each other letters and packages," Johnny Ape explained.

"That's surely a good idea," Billy Squirrel said. "I guess I'll have my box in that old moss-covered stump."

"I'm going to have mine in the hollow log," Tommy Rabbit declared.

"No matter where we all decide to have our mail boxes," Johnny Ape warned, "we must never, never, never let anyone see us getting letters or packages or putting letters or packages in the secret hiding places."

"Cause it wouldn't be a secret anymore, would it?" Dinkle Bunny wanted to know.

"No," Johnny Ape agreed. "It wouldn't be a secret, so if anyone is near, we will have to wait. Do you see?"

"All of the animal boys said that they saw what Johnny Ape meant and they all decided, where they would have their mail boxes. Johnny Ape wanted to have his in the fork of a tree, but of course the little Rabbit boys wouldn't be able to put mail in boxes that were in trees, because Rabbit boys can't climb.

Well, the boys all planned to have their mail boxes on the ground, and really, you can't imagine the fun that those animal children had sending each other notes, silly shots, marbles, and other trinkets. And the boys were so very, very careful that no one would find out anything about the secret hiding boxes. And just because Jimmie Rabbit tried to be careful the funniest thing happened!

Johnny Ape's mother had a party and she served ice cream. Johnny knew there would be some ice cream left so he asked his mother if he could have enough for Jimmie Rabbit and enough for himself. His mother told him she was glad he was kind enough to think of the little Rabbit boy and she told him he could have the ice cream when the cook cut the cream at 4 o'clock.

Johnny ran to the telephone and called Jimmie and told Jimmie to look in his mail box exactly at five minutes after four o'clock, because there would be a surprise there. Jimmie promised he would be there. Jimmie's mail box is down low in the side of a telephone pole, you see.

Well, at 4 o'clock Johnny Ape ran to Jimmie Rabbit's mail box with a great big piece of brick ice cream. Just as Johnny left the mail box, guess what happened! Old Grandpa Bunny came walking down the street. Of course he didn't see Johnny hide the ice cream but he walked over to the grassy place in front of the telephone pole and there he sat down. Just imagine. Right in front of the mail box! Jimmie Rabbit was coming down the street and so he decided he would wait until old Mr. Bunny had left, because he wouldn't want Mr. Bunny to see where the mail box was. The day was warm and the grassy spot where Grandpa Bunny sat was sunny, so the old Bunny man went to sleep. Little Jimmie Rabbit was so anxious to know what was in his mail box that he could scarcely wait. But Grandpa Bunny slept. The sun kept shining on the old Bunny man—but he slept on. Finally he did wake up and went down the street.

Jimmie Rabbit ran over to the mail box. He reached in the pole and oh! what a surprise he had! The ice cream had all melted and was as messy as could be. Jimmie didn't know, whether to laugh or to cry. Just then Johnny Ape came down the street.

"Did you eat the ice cream I gave you?" he asked. Jimmie started to tell him, but he couldn't talk because he had a lump in his throat as though he wanted to cry.

"Never mind, Jimmie," Johnny said. "We have some more ice cream left and I will give you some." You see, Johnny Ape is much older and much larger than Jimmie Rabbit and he tries to be very, very nice to the little Rabbit boy.

So Jimmie went home with Johnny and Jimmie ate and ate and ate ice cream.

"You don't feel so badly now, do you?" Mrs. Ape asked.

"No," Jimmie replied, "but it looks as though some one should have had something out of that ice cream that was in the mail box."

Do You Get Full Value
Out of Your Telephone?

YOU do not unless you use it for out-of-town calls.

Your friends and relatives may be miles away in person but you can be face to face with them by telephone. Perhaps you write letters to them—fine, so far as it goes. But no letter can ever give you the pleasure of hearing their voices.

Your telephone will take you wherever you wish to go, quickly, conveniently and at small cost.

WILMOT HIGH SCHOOL BASEBALL PLAYERS ELECT DIX CAPTAIN

Presentation of Senior Production Is Being Coached.

Gordon Dix was chosen captain of the Wilmot High school baseball team at the first meeting of the athletic association. He is a valuable player on the team besides playing a good game a first base. He should be an excellent captain for the squad.

Thirty boys have answered the call for practice and soon a first and second squad will be named so that scrimmaging games can be played. Games have been arranged with Mukwonago, Allendale and Genoa City. Wilmot will not play Richwood this year as the latter will have no baseball team. The coach and manager are also attempting to arrange games with the high school teams of Williams Bay, Clinton, Antioch and Palmyra.

The members of the H-Y club of the school went to Racine Saturday to take part in the district meet of the club. The arrangements of the meet were in charge of Mr. Nord, district advisor of H-Y work. At this meet the boys from the various towns competed in basketball games and enjoyed the use of the swimming tank and other facilities of the Y. M. C. A. building. Fifteen boys made the trip from Wilmot.

Practice has been started on the senior class play "Sovereign." Mr. Weigel who coached last year's play, "What Happened in Jones" is also coach of this year's play. A few of the characters have already been chosen and the remainder of the tryouts for the parts will be held in the next few days. The play will be given sometime during the last two weeks in May. Definite announcements regarding the play will be made next week when the final casts will be announced and the date of the play will be given.

Pirate Pick-ups

The Wilmot Pirate Baseball team held its first practice in the Wilmot park Sunday afternoon. The team is completely organized and has joined the Inter-County league. ## STOP the DEATH OF BABY CHICKS

Most of these deaths can be prevented

More than one half of the baby chicks hatched this year will die before maturity because of various diseases. You can help prevent this frightful loss in your chicks by feeding INTERNATIONAL Health Chick Mash.

WOOF

WOOF is the result of years of experiment to improve poultry feeds so they will build healthier chicks and cut down the terrible yearly loss. This combination of digestive stimulants is called WOOF so you can identify it.

MARVELOUS WORK OF NEW KONJOLA MEDICINE TOLD

S. H. Reeves Drug Store To Introduce Advanced Remedy For First Time in Antioch.

If you were told that one single medicine put hundreds of men and women back to work in Indianapolis, and other large cities after they had been idle for months with health troubles, it would sound impossible.

G. H. MOSBY

(Discoverer of Konjola)

wouldn't it? And that countless people were completely relieved of rheumatism and neuritis, and that they were able to walk again, without cane or crutches, and that this same medicine restored health to men and women who had suffered with stomach and kidney troubles for years, that complete relief had come in cases of misery where health resorts, expensive treatments and medicine upon medicine had failed—indeed it seems impossible. Yet it is all true, and the medicine that has done all these things is the new Konjola, which is being introduced starting today at the S. H. Reeves Drug Store, this city.

Wherever introduced, this Konjola is vastly different and more effective in thousands of cases of ill-health than any previously known medicine. It is a remarkable liquid compound for the following well known troubles. RHEUMATISM: Especially severe cases, where pains are intense, muscles swollen, joints stiff and rigid. In the milder cases of this disease, Konjola relieves almost at once, and this medicine brings the same results to the neuritis victim that it produces for the rheumatic sufferers.

STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS and BOWEL TROUBLES: Nearly all forms of misery that arise from these unhealthy organs have been so quickly relieved by Konjola that men and women sufferers everywhere were surprised. It is action of this medicine on the organs of the inner-system that removes toxic poisons from the system and brings quick relief in so many cases. The secret of this Konjola is the way it acts on the important functional organs of the body namely, the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. So many diseases and long standing disorders of these organs were so completely conquered and entirely banished by this new compound that thousands of people in larger cities were able to give up taking medicine for time to come.

After the great accomplishments and wonderful work of Konjola in other sections, it is declared that this medicine is what hundreds of sufferers to Antioch and vicinity have long needed to actually reach their cases, and preparations are being made to introduce Konjola for the first time at the S. H. Reeves Drug store, where this medicine will be sold and explained to the public daily.

Twins Are Plentiful

Medical literature records some remarkable cases of multiple birth, and makes twins seem commonplace. There is one instance of seven living children born together of which only one did not survive. Five cases are known of six children born at once. The average of twin births to single ones is about 1 in 100; triplets about 1 in 6,000; and 5 births at a time about 1 in 10,000,000. It is rare for all four of quadruplets to survive.

Oldest of Arts

One of the oldest arts known to man is no important trade of the navy, that of blacksmithing. In the Bible are numerous references of this important trade. Men able to form iron and steel weapons were valuable in those days and still are.

Boards are a fire thing. They are constructed in nature's laboratory and fill many and varied uses of man. They will withstand a great deal of rough treatment. But the finest board is absolutely unable to withstand weathering and decay if left exposed to the rigors of our Illinois weather for any length of time. Paint is much cheaper than lumber and is the best preservative we have against weathering. Paint now or repair later is true of all unpainted buildings.

After all Isn't this the real test of motor oil?

THERE is no simple way to check the quality of motor oil. Not color . . . Not the way it feels between the fingers . . . Nor even price . . . And not mileage between crankcase changes.

Oil must have four characteristics, engineers say, if lubrication is to be both complete and correct.

Thousands of automobile owners have found one oil—Shell Motor Oil—which meets the requirements in every way.

Regular users of Shell Motor Oil report a marked reduction in carbon removal jobs. They enjoy amazing freedom from power losses due to carbon accumulations. That's because Shell has an extremely low carbon content—20 to 33 per cent less than a number of other popular and nationally known oils.

And the small amount of carbon which forms in a motor lubricated by Shell is soft, fluffy and non-fouling. It does not bake on metal surfaces. Instead, it blows out with the exhaust gases.

To the man who thinks all motor oils are alike—we say,
"Try Shell—for 30 days"

One complete crankcase change will be enough to show you that there is a difference in motor oils. Put Shell Motor Oil over the road in the hardest kind of service. Shell speaks with performance . . . thrives on comparisons.

400 "Extra Dry" Shell Gasoline starts quickly, burns completely and delivers full power because it's a "dry" motor fuel. Ought to cost more, but it doesn't.

Does the Oil
you're using now have the 4 essentials of complete and proper lubrication?

1. Low Carbon Content
2. Non-fouling Carbon
3. Ideal body at all Operating Temperatures
4. Low Pour Point

Check your present oil for these four characteristics. Every oil, of course, has one of them. A few rate high on two or even three. But only Shell Motor Oil combines them all.

Shell Motor Oil has body and stamina. It won't break down. It provides the same protection at sixty miles an hour as at twenty. And to body, Shell adds a low pour point for easy starting and immediate lubrication in cold weather.

Shell Motor Oil is today's outstanding development in the science of automobile lubrication. Shell crude comes from handpicked wells. Refined by the new and exclusive Shell-developed, low-temperature process. Never scorched, never weakened in refining. And tested 259 times to check and certify the rich, unvarying quality of every quart.

That quality is adding countless extra miles to thousands of cars like yours . . . and has made Shell one of the best-selling oils in America.

STOP AT THE SIGN OF THE SHELL—and let the Shell Lubrication Chart be your guide . . . You will find courteous attendants at the familiar yellow and red Service Stations . . . Convenient everywhere.

LEGISLATION FOR SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT

What will the legislature do for the schools? The answer to this question is of great importance to the people whose one and one-third million children are in the public schools, and it is of vital importance to the future of the State itself.

It is a well known fact that Illinois does not rank as high as it should among the states of the Union in the standards of educational efficiency. Therefore, several bills have been introduced in this 56th General Assembly that have the common purpose of raising these standards slightly. These bills are really the related parts of a definite plan for school improvement, and the plan recognizes some of the fundamental factors of educational efficiency: or instance, length of school term, regular attendance, quality of teaching service, and financial ability of school districts to maintain reasonable standards.

In order that all children may receive a good common school education, they should be guaranteed at least eight months of school each year. This minimum term, which is really less than the average for the State, is provided in House Bill No. 307 by Mr. Robinson. But providing eight months of school will be helpful only if the pupils are present. Senate Bill No. 150 by Mr. Cuthbertson, which was passed and sent to the Governor on March 27, codifies and clarifies the attendance laws, makes them more easily enforced, and therefore will cause more regular attendance. But, if every child is to get the full benefit of eight months regular attendance, the teaching service must be of high quality. Senate Bill No. 113 by Mr. Cuthbertson raises slightly the minimum requirements for certification and will assure better trained teachers in the future. Increased appropriations for the State Normal Schools will also help strengthen this important factor of school efficiency.

Finally, since many districts with numerous children and little wealth cannot keep their schools up to reasonable and necessary standards, the state distributive school fund must be increased to give the less able districts more state aid. House Bill No. 201 by Mr. Waller provides an appropriation of $13,000,000 a year to the state school fund, which is estimated as the amount necessary to pay in full the claims of the districts for state aid under the new and improved distributive law.

The 56th General Assembly now in session is giving serious consideration to the several bills for school improvement listed above.

INTERNATIONAL PROBLEMS

The recent sinking of the run-running British vessel "Im Alone" by the United States Coast Guard craft in the Gulf of Mexico, the statement by Secretary Mellon that the sinking is justifiable and the report that protests will be lodged by the British and Canadian governments, brings up the interesting thought of what might happen if the United States becomes a member of the League World Court in case we were confronted with similar cases.

Certainly most Americans will agree that the United States is justified in protecting itself so far as possible against run-running boats and ships carrying drugs.

when these try to land their cargoes in the United States. If American bootleggers and run-runners are to be apprehended whenever possible, certainly there is no excuse for dealing less gently with the foreign variety.

But this brings the interesting question as to how such incidents, becoming international in importance, would be handled by the World Court. It is to be remembered that the other nations of the world do not have prohibition laws and are not in sympathy with our attempts to make America a bone-dry nation. This lack of sympathy is not due to any regard for our own "liberals" but is due rather to the fact that these nations formerly imported a lot of liquor into the United States. It becomes apparent therefore that in case the World Court were called on to decide any question regarding our right to deal with rum runners and drug vendors on the high seas, the court in its sympathy at least would be overwhelmingly against us. It would not be a case of Great Britain having one vote or six votes of her own against us, it would be a case of Uncle Sam against the world.

There are other questions on which we stand alone, among them the question of immigration, which is bound to become more acute if America continues to prosper and Europe continues to remain depressed. Here is another case where the sentiment of not one nation but of practically all of the other nations would be against us. The question of tariffs is another.

Of course it will be argued that even if we enter the court and the cards are some time stacked against us we can always withdraw. This is true, but in case we were to make a gesture toward withdrawing the outcry of "quitted" and "failing to do your duty to the world" which would go up not only in Europe but in our own internationalist quarters would be loud enough to be heard on the planet Mars.

Fortunately, however, the Senate when the World Court resolution was adopted, very wisely included reservations which it was believed would safeguard the United States. When the resolution comes up for reconsideration the Senate will have the opportunity of passing on it again and there is no reason to believe that the Senate will not examine the question in a sane manner with the best interests of the nation at heart.

It's funny how tariff sentiment is changing. We know a lot of free traders who want a prohibitive tariff on ukeleles and saxophones.

Indiana legislature has repealed the state's automobile speed limit, thus giving us another example of getting rid of useless legislation.

If you should meet old Diogenes coming down the street at high noon one of these days in 1929 carrying his lighted lantern doubtless he would tell you he was looking for a place to park.

Who says that the world isn't getting better? We haven't heard of the bobbed hair bandit for several months now.

Of course you can't drink your liquor and have it too, but if you drink it you are liable to have almost anything else.

If Leon Trotsky can ever get back into the United States he is sore of a job as a professor in a "liberal" college.

We don't want to commit ourselves about joining the world court until we find out for sure who the sheriff is going to be.

When a woman doesn't talk, suspicion is aroused. Here's what happened Sunday in a local hotel. A man and woman came into the lobby, looked around, and the man helped the woman take off her coat. Neither said a word. The woman motioned to a table and the two sat down. Neither spoke. The man who was waiting table rushed to the kitchen and put a pencil over his ear and a pad of paper in his pocket. He realized the couple was deaf and dumb. Wishing to appear ignorant of the fact, however, he went to the table and said his "piece" about roast pork and fried chicken, thinking perhaps the man or the woman would spring the pencil and paper idea first. Instead, however, the man declared in plain English that he preferred the chicken, and the woman murmured a "me, too."

Why I Plant a Garden

BL C. L. KUTIL

Gardening is a fine art and most people pursue it for the pleasure there is in it, but other factors besides pleasure enter into this hobby of mine. A man's soul must certainly be out of tune with nature if he takes no pleasure in making the earth produce food for his own table, and flowers to gladden someone's sorrowing heart.

Every good gardener is a good citizen and a trustworthy individual. He cannot be otherwise—having spent years with silent plants that live according to natural law and respond so willingly and pleasantly to any care that might be given them. Every dweller, whether in the city or the country, should have a garden; and this garden should be a part of his children's education.

Three Big Doses

My garden offers me health in three large doses. The exercise is recreation at its best; the air and the sunshine with its ultra-violet rays are revivification supreme, but to top all this there are the vitamins, so plentiful in all vegetables, that are so healthful in preventing disease, and making the body function properly. Physicians tell us to eat at least two kinds of vegetables each day and that the child, after its first year, should have a liberal supply of them for the proper development of all the systems of the body. I want to keep physically fit and mentally alert and I want my family to be likewise—that is why we have a garden and eat fresh vegetables.

I like to experiment with plants and delight in observing the results. A plant will respond to any stimulus and will always repay one for any fair treatment.

Seed can be treated to prevent diseases, vines sprayed to prevent insects and diseases, the ground can be inoculated for such crops as peas and beans, and the ground fertilized so as to produce bigger yields.

I manage to always have some new crop under cultivation. You can never tell—a weed under cultivation may become a valuable food or farm crop. If one can only improve one crop during his life time, he should feel satisfied with the accomplishment.

Could Be Beautiful

One may see many back yards and vacant lots that are eye-sores to any community. How much better are those that are planted to some useful garden crop or to any array of beautiful flowers? Nothing gives me a better thrill than to see a well arranged garden in which my family takes an interest. How well one likes to delight in taking his friends to see his garden.

It appears that not enough of our older people take an active interest in gardening. They do not stop to consider that their children are missing an experience which perhaps would round out their lives and make many of our children now grow up of them more useful citizens. Too ignorant of Nature's ways and narrowed to the point where they cannot be congenial to the rest of society.

Gardening is not only a personal matter with me, it has its place in the welfare of a nation.

Crude Oil Production
Is Slightly Lower
First Month In 1929

Chicago, April 11 — Crude production of petroleum in Illinois for January, 1929, was 506,000 barrels as compared with 510,000 barrels produced in January, 1928, according to a survey of conditions in the petroleum industry recently made by the research department of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce. Reports are also given on the production of coal and pig iron.

The estimated production of bituminous coal for Illinois in January, 1929, was $7,214,000 net tons as compared with 6,105,000 net tons in the same month in 1928 and 6,070,000 net tons in the preceding month of December, 1928.

In 116 utility plants in Illinois and Indiana there were 735,343 net tons of coal consumed in January, 1929, while in January, 1928, there was an increase of 81,121 net tons, or an 11 per cent increase.

Figures covering pig iron production in Illinois for the first two months of this year as submitted by the research department of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce give the tonnage for January as 340,934 and for February of 339,147 tons. Of the total tonnage for February 123,911

Thirty-six coke furnaces were in blast in Illinois and Indiana district as of March 1, averaging a gross tonnage per day of 24,970. Thirty-three furnaces were in blast on February 1 with the gross tonnage per day figure placed at 22,700.

DO YOU remember those first crude automobiles in the long ago, that ran on one cylinder?

Diversification helps take the risk out of the farmer's life.

Former Resident Tells Of Indian Observances Of Easter In Arizona

Interesting accounts of celebrations of Easter by the Indian tribes of Tucson, Arizona, have been sent to THE NEWS office by Fred Windhoff, 1237 Euclid avenue, Tucson. Mr. Windhoff is a former resident of Antioch. The account follows:

The Yaqui ceremonial Easter dances, were in progress at the Pascua village, north of Tucson.

Large numbers of these tribesmen from the Yaqui Valley of Sonora, Mexico, flocked into town in autos, wagons, on horses and burros, and even on foot, from long distances.

Day of Sorrow

Good Friday, is a day of sorrow and mourning at the Pascua Village. There is the procession about the Via Crucis, or Way of the Cross, and the destruction of the Garden of Gethsemane by the Pharisees. The crosses that rise above the ramada are painted black, and the little statue of the Virgin is garbed in sombre black.

As has been the custom from time immemorial, the Good Friday procession of the Via Crucis leaves the ramada in the afternoon, led by the maestro who carries a small crucifix covered with a black cloth. The march about the Way is made in the muffled beat of a drum, and the black-robed figure of the Virgin is borne aloft by women of the tribe. As the procession reaches the seventh station, an ornamented, canopied, litter covered with a white cloth is brought from the ramada, and after the prayers for the station are recited the small black-draped crucifix is placed within the litter, and taken to the ramada, where prayers are continued.

During all this time the mimmers dance about, engaging in all sorts of grotesque antics to distract the faithful during a recital of prayers for the dead.

Saturday is "La Gloria"

Holy Saturday, the Gloria occurs, which is the final overcoming of evil by Good, and the triumph of Christianity. The most alluring of the dances begins about 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and it is to this part of the aboriginal observance that the public is made welcome. The Pascueros, Venados and the Matichins then begin their dances in earnest, and these continue far into the night. They are held in the ramada to the southeast of the plaza. The religious services are concluded with the burning of the costumes of the Fariseos and the effigy of Judas. The final feast occurs Easter Sunday morning.

Measuring Cup Cost Farmer $32 Monthly Feed Records Show

Urbana, April 11—How a fine measuring cup cost a McLean county dairyman $32 a month in extra feed before it was discovered in a checkup of his feeding methods is related in a report made to the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, by Glenn Vandenberg, tester in the McLean county No. 1 Dairy Herd Improvement association of which the dairyman was a member.

A comparison between the estimated amount of feed and the amount actually fed during one month showed that he herd of 70 cows got 16 per cent, or 2,000 pounds, more of the grain mixture than was needed to keep up their production. This extra ton of feed represented an increased feed cost of $32. Investigation revealed that the tin cup used in measuring the feed held approximately one pound but when used by a generous feeder evidently held about 18 ounces, which caused the increased feed cost.

Had this herd been fed according to production, the saving in feed costs for one month would have paid the dairyman's association dues for four months, it was pointed out by J. H. Brock, assistant in dairy extension at the agricultural college, where the work of these associations is supervised. Making savings by accurately feeding according to production is but one of the many ways whereby dairy farmers can realize benefits from membership in a herd improvement association, he added.

Lake County Doctors
Discuss Tuberculosis
In Series of Stories

(Following is one of a series of articles on tuberculosis prepared by Lake county physicians. The articles are published under the direction of the Lake County Tuberculosis association and the Lake County Medical society.—Editor's Note.)

Tuberculosis in Children

In 1884 Robert Koch made the discovery that tuberculosis was caused by a germ and since that time tuberculosis has been known as an infectious as well as a contagious disease.

This germ of tuberculosis is a minute bacillus one-five thousandth of an inch in length. It is more resistant to drying than most disease germs, and can remain alive in dried sputum as long as from one to six months. However these germs of tuberculosis are readily killed by direct sunlight, which shows us the necessity for plenty of sunlight in prevention as well as in the cure of the disease.

Infection occurs in most cases from the inhalation of dust particles, dried sputum, or infectious droplets containing the germs which are expelled in coughing, sneezing, or even while talking. By coughing and spitting, one patient may discharge as many as a billion germs in 24 hours.

Disease Is Acquired

Children are never born with tuberculosis. It is always acquired after birth. In fact, the infection can take place with the first breaths of the new-born baby, when it is handled or nursed by some one with open tuberculosis. About 60 per cent of all children are infected when they reach the age of eight years, and 95 per cent of all adults have been infected at sometime and have immunized themselves.

Virtually everyone has been infected with the germs of tuberculosis, yet only a small per cent, not more than one or two per cent, ever develop active disease. Most of us are able to check the primary infection of the lungs and it heals and calcifies, leaving us more resistant to another attack.

Children should be kept in surroundings as clean as possible, free from dust, and with all the sunlight available. No nurse or servant should be employed for the care of children who has not been examined for tuberculosis. A child should never be allowed to remain with the parent or grandparent who has a chronic cough, or so-called bronchitis, which may be tuberculosis. A child should never be allowed to play in dirty floors or streets where there is danger of infection from dust or sputum is great.

The first sign of tuberculosis on children may be the developing of a small area of broncho-pneumonia. This may be very minute or may become so large as to involve the entire lung. In healthy infants the focus remains small and heals. It can sometimes be seen on careful x-ray examination and remains through life as a small calcified spot in the lung. The apex is practically never involved in infants and small children. The weakened children, the focus may be enlarged.

With the focus in the lungs the glands around the windpipe and its branches are involved. These glands may press upon the windpipe and cause a cough often mistaken for whooping cough. In children who develop an attack of measles or whooping cough, these glands may break down, the germs spreading along the lymph channels to reach the blood stream. Then they may be carried to different organs of the body, the bones and joints, the brain, the liver or kidneys.
